

On October 31 of the current year, the representatives of USAID visited at the IIA office within the project "Economic Prosperity Initiative". The meeting was hosted by the Association's Secretary General, Mr. Osman chalishkan. Project Manager of Investment Management Service – Luc – Caltrider spoke about creation of new technologies in agriculture and the ways of its implementation. – Related to the issue "The second Forum of the Greenhouse" will take place on November 3 in Tbilisi.