

The candidate for PM promised the business representatives that the government will not interfere with business illegally. The coalition leader also warned the businesspersons to cut the prices, which are artificially risen. The meeting was held in question-answers format. On October 5, 2012 the meeting with the leader of the Georgian Dream coalition Bidzinalvanishvili and Georgian and foreign businessmen was held. The meeting was attended by the representatives of International Investors Association of Georgia, also by the representatives of small and medium business from Georgia as well as foreign countries. The candidate for prime-minister of Georgia discussed with them the programs and initiatives the government's new composition intends to present in the field of economy.

Mr. Ivanishvili answered questions of the business representatives, who mainly wanted to know whether bank rate will be reduced under the new government, what kind of economic policy it is going to run.

According to him, it is discussed what the state is supposed to carry out in economic or legal terms in order to create an actual investment environment in Georgia and assist developing business, because this is the grounds for revival of economy and for fighting the big unfairness named unemployment.
