

The meeting was introductory in nature, with the parties discussing the difficult situation created by the pandemic, the investment climate and the implementation of new investments. We would like to inform you that Guria Express's field of activity is flour trade, flour production. The company has made an investments of six million dollars in Georgia and plans to make additional investments in the future.