

International Investors Association of Georgia is continuing to extend relationship with competent and authoritative persons at custom in order to get full information about different issues and explanation about legislation. At the meeting will be also discussed those problems which face investors during their activity. The main subject of the meeting on August 17 was so called "product processing regime at customs", which textile companies are concerned. The head of custom formation of regional Revenue Service of Adjara Mr. Mikheil Qavtaradze gave full information about establishment of outlet norms and the procedures concerning remains, expert decision, the procedures for cutting off and destruction of remains and drawing up an act, main control problems and difficulties at time of product processing at customs, making custom clearance for spare parts and accessories in frontier points, presenting bank guarantee. International Investors Association of Georgia is planning to arrange meeting between custom authorities and businessmen in nearest future.