

12-member eco-migrant family received a house from the Government Reserve Fund under the decision of the Chairman of Ajara AR Government Archil Khabadze. 20 000 Gel was allocated from the reserve fund to buy the house. The family was settled in the village of Koreti, Akhmeta Region in 2005, where they were made to return to Ajara due to the poor conditions. Several charity actions were carried out to help the family last years. The family received household items as well from the Government of Ajara with the support of International Investment Association of Georgia. International Investors Association Traditionally continues charity events. Association also helped this family with products and clothes last year, and this year the family was received home appliances like (Refrigerator, Gas stove, Water heater and Iron). The youngest member of the family is 18 months old, followed the twins, who are now three years old. 4 children from 10 are low-grade pupils. The Ivaniadzes are registered with 10000 points in socially vulnerable families' database. Their monthly allowance is 500 Gel.